Re: Scheduled Start Date for Monsanto Queeny Trial Burn Test

Dear Mr. Pauling:

The trial burn test for the CAC incinerator at the Monsanto Chemical Company Queeny plant in St. Louis has been scheduled to begin on Monday, January 30, 1989. This letter provides you with a six week notification for procuring the EPA ppb audit gas cylinder for assessing volatile organic emission test sampling/analysis accuracy.

Sincerely,

James A. Peters
Environmental Consultant
